B. IDEA Hearing

Lori Sancin, Director of Pupil Services, presented information regarding how funds are allotted to support Students with special needs in our district. Berea City Schools receives just over $1.4 million in federal funds for special needs students in the 2026 fiscal year. Approximately $49,000 is allocated to two nonpublic schools in the district. The remaining $1.3 million supports salaries for staff who assist students with disabilities. Another $37,000 is specifically used for early childhood special education services, and $25,000 is used for Parent Mentor Project.
