Understanding Advanced Placement Today: Course Models, Assessment Design, and Expanding Student Access, Mrs. Ondrea Reed, Deputy Superintendent

Mrs. Reed provided an overview of Advanced Placement course models, including a comparison between the traditional AP model and the new College Board “Career Kickstart” approach. She shared how traditional AP courses are structured, introduced the new Career Kickstart model, and highlighted Los Alamitos Unified’s implementation of two new courses at LAHS that align with the new Business and Entrepreneurship pathway: AP Business with Personal Finance and AP Cybersecurity. The presentation emphasized how this new model expands student access while maintaining academic rigor and aligning with college and career pathways.
