II - Principal's Report	Staffing Update State Testing Update A+ for 26-27 Site Council Terms ending: Bev Harvey and Stacy Reinstein	With resignation/retirements, 3 FTE reduction will be able to remain at Hopi 5th grade will have 5 sections in 26/27. Testing make-up days will be limited, so focus will be on arriving on time and full day attendance. Tons of small groups to test this year. 12-15 test days, next year may have multiple grades on the same day. Concerns about WIFI load have been reassured by the district. Tests are digital, no paper test accommodations. A+ is a long, heavy lift process, which takes about one year. Committee should be formed by end of this year, include 4-5 teachers, admin, parent/family/community and classified. May be a meeting over the summer or outside of regular school hours with compensation. Sub days will also be provided. Opportunity to spotlight Hopi, recognize staff. Pride point for students, staff, district. Then refresh every three years. All three aging board members Shelly Levi, Stacy Reinstein and Bev Harvey, have agreed to stay on for another year.

V – Announcements/ Open Discussion		May 6 is the initial training for the new math curriculum and some PD days prior to start of year. Heard new curriculum has strong spiral component; collaborative work, higher level improved, K-2 richer, more robust math path, great online component which supports work at home. OE are trickling in. 79/99 kinder enrollments are in-boundary. Historically Mar-Aug we see 20+ K enrollments. 1st grade is only grade now closed to OE. Many Pima/Echo school of choice concierge have not made a decision yet and we've had very few but there is no decision due date yet, GB to make decision.
