THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY PLEDGE

I pledge to uphold
The high purposes of the National Honor Society
To which I have been selected;
I will be true to the principles for which it stands;
And will maintain and encourage
High standards of scholarship, service, leadership,
And character.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICIAL INSIGNIA

When the National Honor Society was founded in 1921, the National Council authorized and approved an official emblem. A National Honor Society chapter can issue this emblem only to duly elected active or honorary members.

The emblem of the National Honor Society was first described by E.J. Eaton, a member of the first National Council: "The emblem of this society is the keystone and the flaming torch. The keystone bears at its base the letters CSLS, which stand for the four cardinal principles of the organization: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. As the keystone is placed by the builder to hold the perfect arch in perpetual stability, so the structure of our education must be held firm and true to the purposes of life by the virtues represented in this symbol. To bear forward the searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow in light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition for the enduring values of life, and to serve—these purposes are symbolized in the torch."

International Thespian Society®

HILTON HEAD CHRISTIAN ACADEMY INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

Troop Number: 8537

Mr. Eli Taylor, President

Mrs. Michelle McElroy-Cox, Advisor

The Society was established in 1929. The organization is named for Thespis, the ancient Greek who, according to legend, stepped out from the chorus and became the first actor.

The Society's guiding principle is a dedication to excellence in educational theatre.

The International Thespian Society honors those students who do theatre well.

The International Thespian Society motto comes from Alexander Pope's 'Essay on Man':

'Act well your part; there all the honor lies.'

INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY PLEDGE

I promise to uphold the aims and ideals of the International Thespian Society.

I am a student of theatre and excellence is my ideal.

I promise to perform my part as well as I can;

to accept praise and criticism with grace;

to cooperate with my fellow Thespians

and work for the good of the troupe;

and to share my love of theatre.
