STUDENT USE OF PERSONAL MOBILE DEVICES: RCPS POLICY 6.42a

Policy 6.42a Student Use of Personal Mobile Devices

- ▶ Middle School: Students may possess a personal mobile device on school property, provided that the device must be 'off' (or in airplane mode), kept out of sight at all times and not on one's person, meaning stored in a personal bag such as a bookbag, during the school day.
- ▶ "Personal mobile devices" include: cell phones, smart watches, air pods/earbuds, and headphones.
- ▶ There will be no warnings — consequences will be applied starting with the first offense.
- ▶ 1st Offense: Student will surrender their personal mobile device(s) to the teacher. Teacher will return student's mobile device(s) at the end of class. Student will be assigned one day of silent lunch. Teacher will notify the parent/guardian.
- ▶ 2nd Offense: Teacher will make an office referral. School administration will suspend the student's personal mobile device privileges for 5 school days. Student will be required to check their personal mobile device(s) into the main office upon arriving at school and retrieve their personal mobile device(s) from the main office upon leaving school. Student will be assigned one day of silent lunch. School administration will notify the parent/guardian.
- ▶ 3rd Offense: Teacher will make an office referral. School administration will suspend the student's personal mobile device privileges for 10 school days. Student will be required to check their personal mobile device(s) into the main office upon arriving at school and retrieve their personal mobile device(s) from the main office upon leaving school. Student will be assigned after-school detention. School administration will notify the parent/guardian.
- ▶ 4th Offense: Teacher will make an office referral. School administration will suspend the student's personal mobile device privileges for the remainder of the semester (a minimum of 30 days) and contact the parent/guardian for a required parent conference. Student will be required to check their personal mobile device(s) into the main office upon arriving at school and retrieve their personal mobile device(s) from the main office upon leaving school. Student will be assigned after-school detention. School administration will notify the parent/guardian and schedule a required parent conference.
- ▶ 5th Offense: Teacher will make an office referral. School administration will suspend the student's phone privileges for the remainder of the school year. Student will be required to check their personal mobile device(s) into the main office upon arriving at school and retrieve their personal mobile device(s) from the main office upon leaving school. Additionally, the student will be assigned after-school detention. School administration will notify the parent/guardian.
