

GAP YEAR

“I experienced the best year of my life working and travelling all over South Africa [with Project Trust] and returned with so much more confidence in myself and a lifetime of memories”

Joe Clarke (RGS ON 09 - 16)

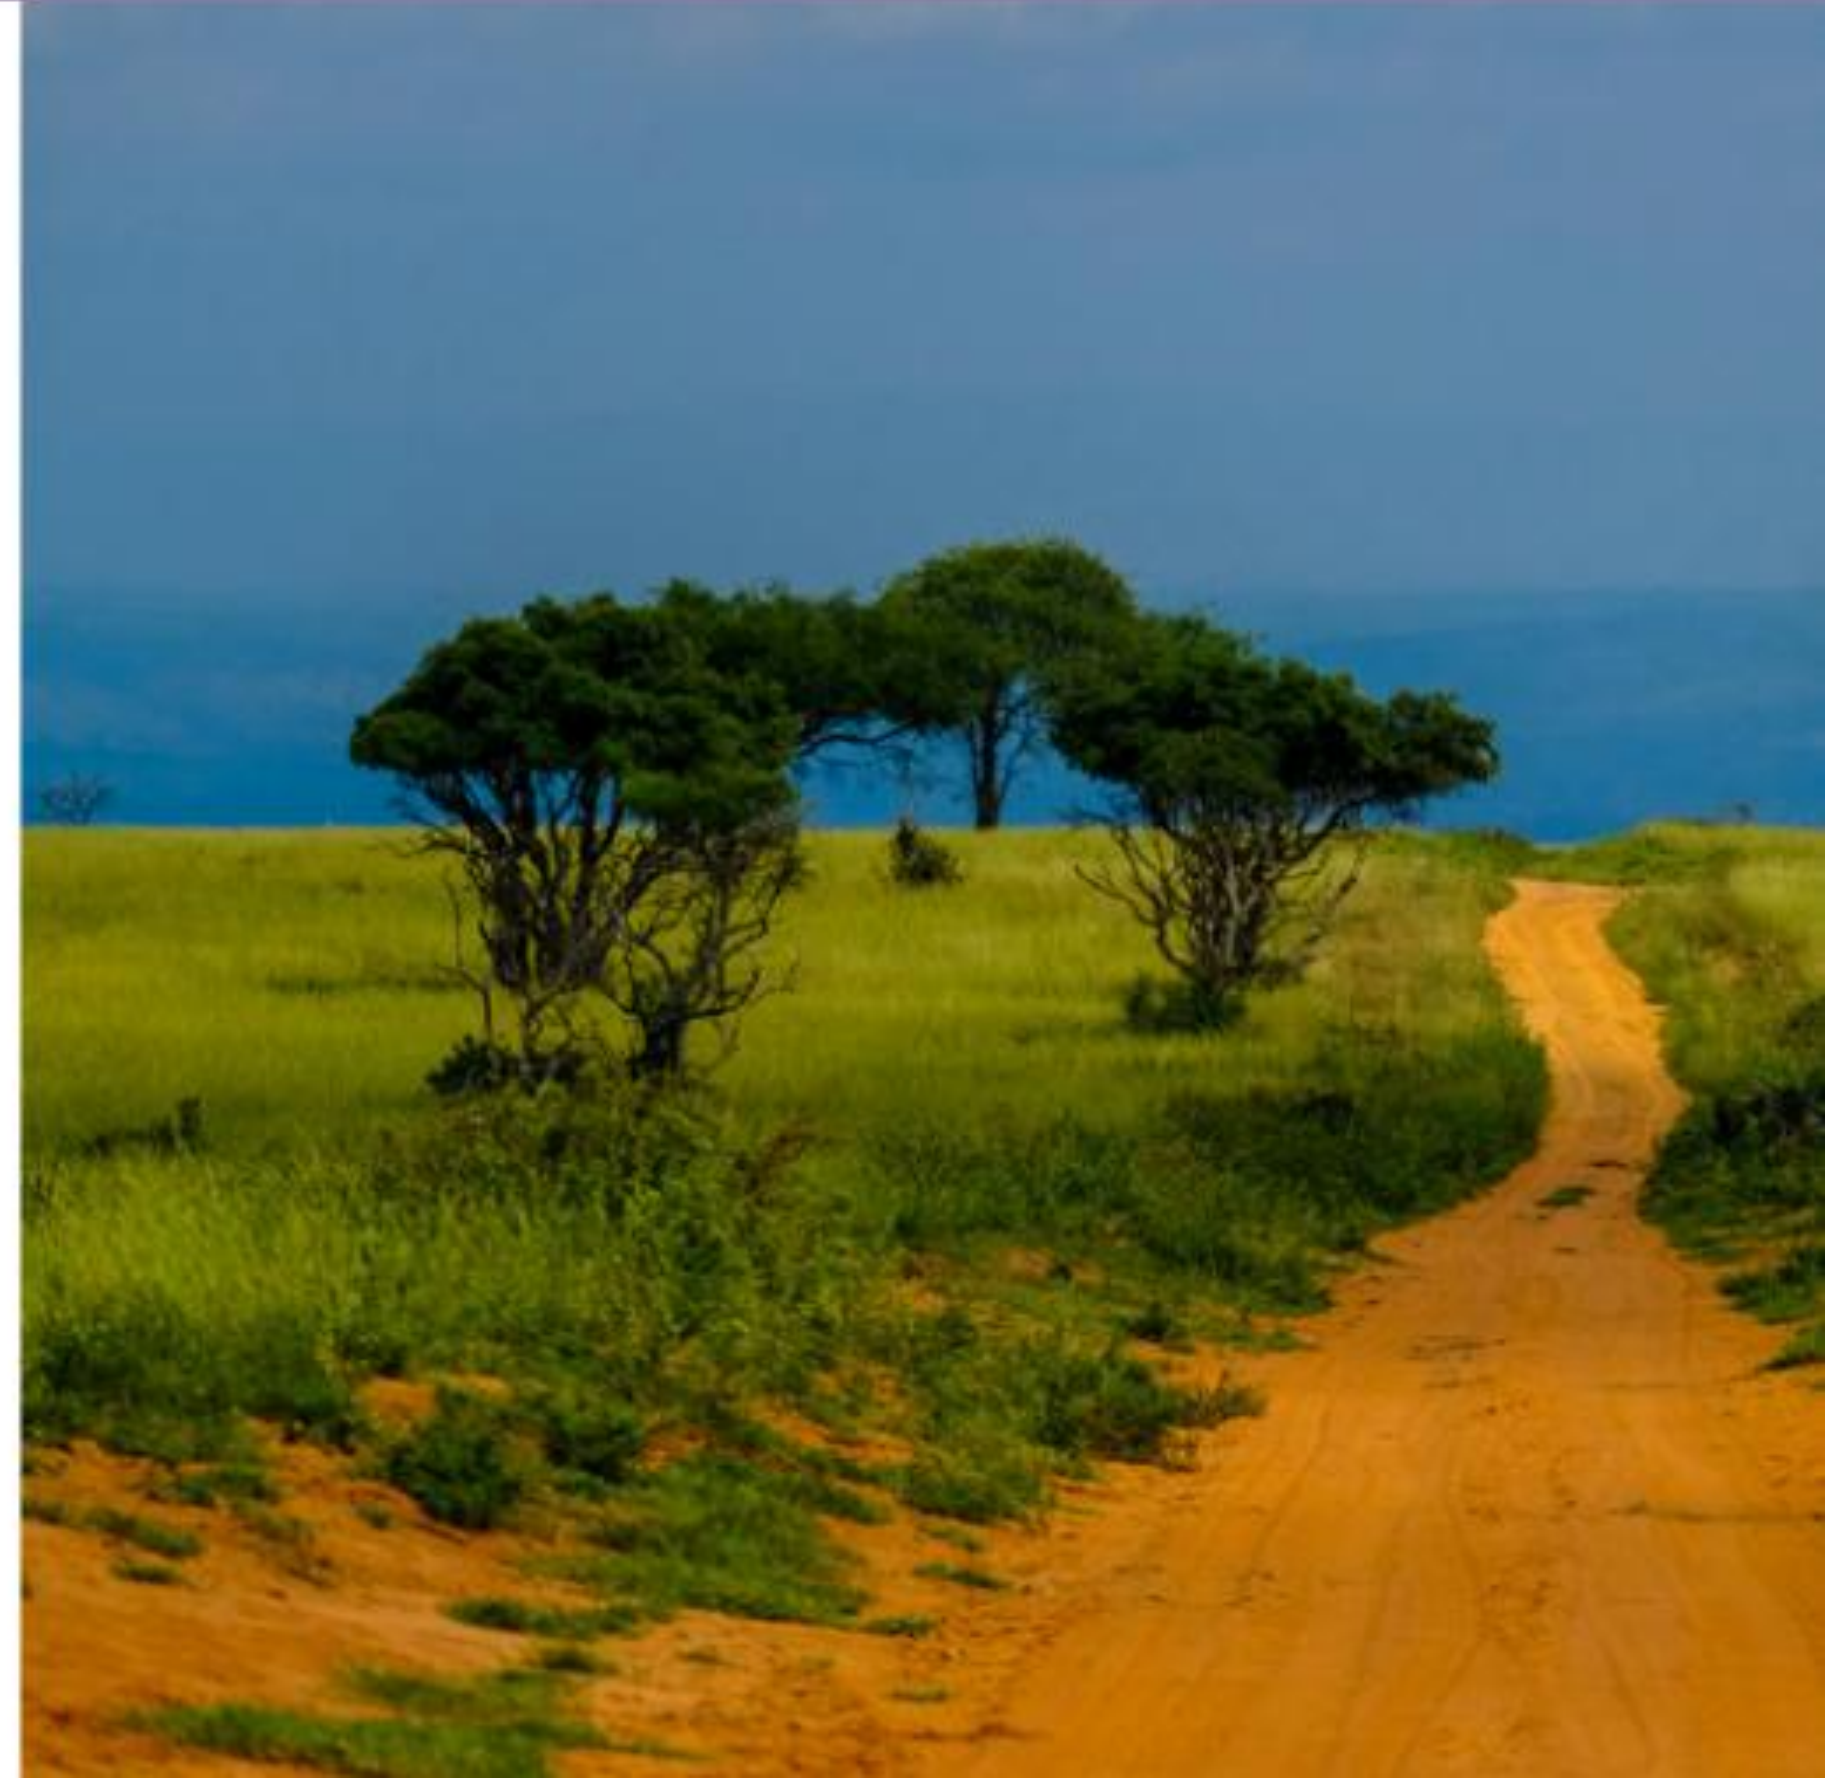

GAP YEAR

“Spending 12-months in Malawi with Project Trust was a transformative year that offered significant personal growth, and I am certain that it has also supported my professional development....Living and working in a new cultural environment challenged me to adapt quickly, communicate across differences I had never experienced before, and develop resilience in unfamiliar situations.”

“Aside from all of the fantastic life skills which I gained through this adventure, this was also very well regarded by my University (Exeter) upon application and also in my early career. On the back of this fantastic experience, I went on to live in the Amazon in Peru for 12 months as part of my University degree programme... I couldn't have been better prepared!”

Peter Bexton (RGS ON 90 - 01)

TRUST since 1967

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a red tank top and blue pants, is walking away from the camera on a path of reddish-brown rocks. She is carrying a pink bag. The background is a dense forest of green trees.

A NEW

Why take a Year Out?

Take a break from formal education and explore the world.

Immerse yourself in a different culture.

Make Friendships that last a lifetime.

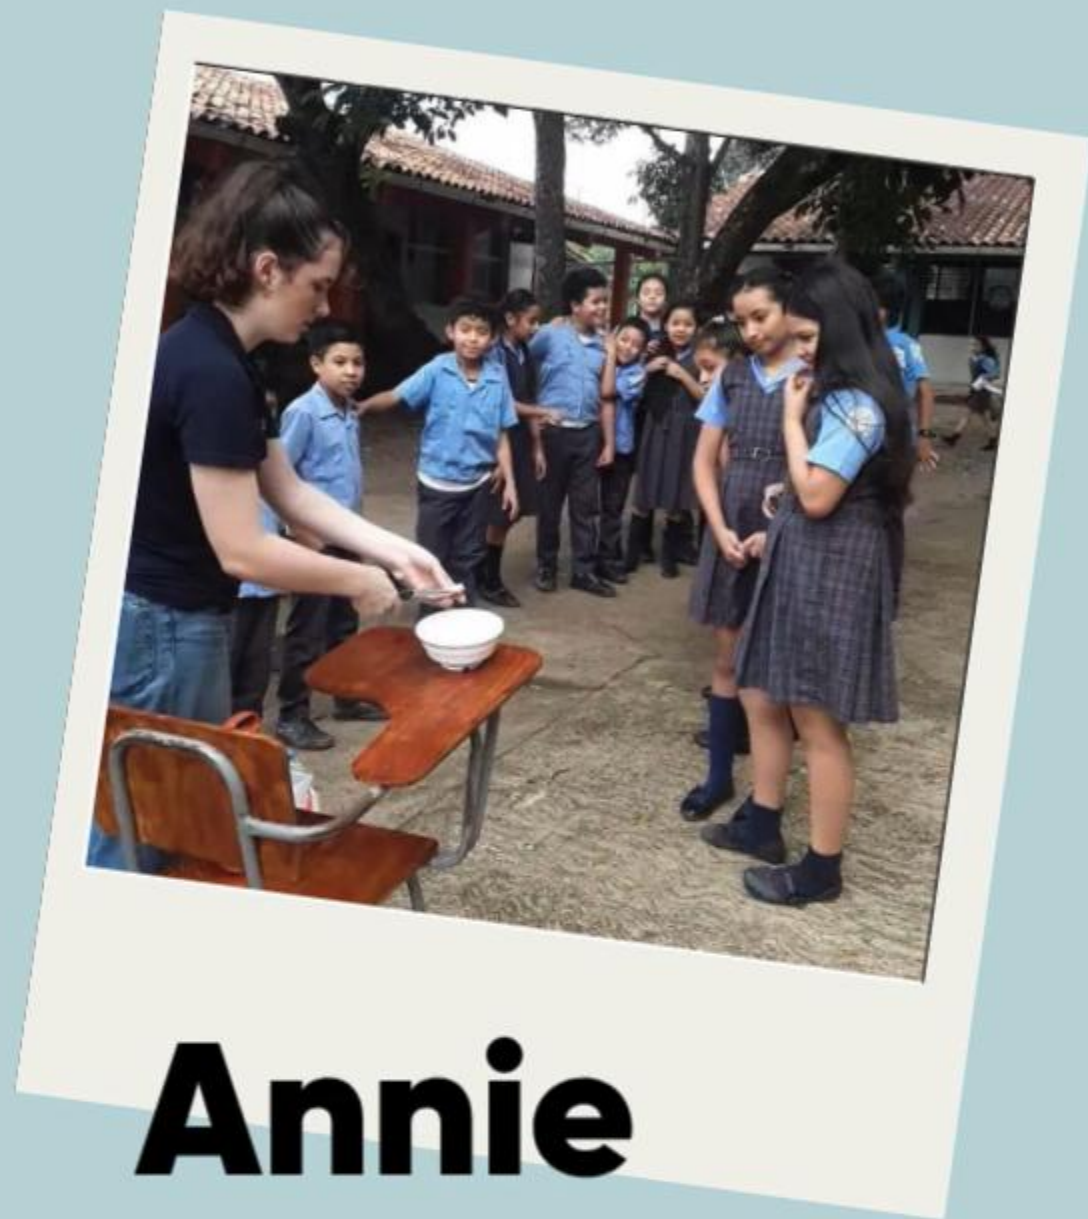

Discover new interests and build new skills - learn a language.

Stand out from the crowd.
