

Furniture Refinishing and Chair Caning Supplies/Materials Lists

Bring your project to the first night of class.

What to Wear

- Old clothes that can get dirty and stained
- Comfortable shoes because you will be standing - also my get dirty

Furniture Refinishing Supplies Needed:

- newspaper
- paper towels
- inexpensive natural bristle brush, approx. 1-2" wide
- empty tuna fish cans - 2
- putty knife, flexible preferred
- Motsenbocker's Lift-Off, Citristrip Stripping Gel or any water-based stripper*
- denatured alcohol
- thick rubber gloves
- white rags (cut up T-shirts are best!)
- steel wool, medium and fine grade
- foam brushes (3 - different sizes)
- stain - variety or favorites to complete your project

*If doing several items, purchase gallon size. Otherwise, a smaller quantity will be sufficient.

Caning List (for a cane or splint seat):

Caning is not taught in this class; experienced caners welcome

- Cane (purchased by the yard online)
- Spline (purchased online for border/finishing edge. Width of spline info at <https://franksupply.com/canining/reed-spline-table.html>)
- plastic bucket/pan to soak cane
- clip clothespins, 10
- caning pegs or golf tees, 2 dozen
- sponge/spray bottle
- white terry cloth towel
- scissors
- old butter knife (optional)
- awl or a nut pick

For Pressed Cane Project (this can be done in class)

- Pressed cane (take project with you to the store to get the right size – at least 3 inches wider and longer than seat)
- Spline (will need to order at least 6 inches longer than channel around the seat). Width determined by width of the channel. Both pressed cane seat and spline available at Dan's Crafts and Things on Empire Boulevard. To measure spline width, refer to chart at <https://franksupply.com/canining/reed-spline-table.html>
- Wood glue

If you are taking out a pressed cane seat, bring white vinegar, spray bottle.

Other supplies include: plastic bucket/pan to soak piece of pressed cane
If furniture piece needs to be refinished, that will be done before caning.
