4. The school district will support the use of school property to promote nutrition, physical activity, and curriculum and co-curricular activities through school gardens. School gardens ensure students have the opportunity to experience planning, harvesting, preparing, serving, and tasting self-grown food that reflects the ethnic and cultural diversity of the student population. The school district supports the incorporation of school gardens into the standards-based curriculum as a hands-on, interdisciplinary teaching tool to influence student food choices and lifelong eating habits. School meals will include fresh, locally grown foods in school meals from school garden whenever possible and will be promoted in the cafeteria.

B. Physical Activity

1. Students need opportunities for physical activity and to fully embrace regular physical activity as a personal behavior. Toward that end, health and physical education will reinforce the knowledge and self-management skills needed to maintain a healthy lifestyle and reduce sedentary activities, such as watching television;
