Lanterns, Language and Celebration

More than 500 guests attended The Bolles School's Chinese New Year Gala and the 20th annual Chinese State Competition in February.

Held on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 27 and 28 on the Bolles Upper School San Jose Campus, the events kicked off with student performances, a Chinese night market-style dinner, cultural activities and finished with a firework finale. The next day, students from across the state squared off in reading, listening, speaking and cultural jeopardy categories, marking the third time Bolles has hosted the statewide competition.

During the festivities, Bolles Upper School Head Moya Marks was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award in Chinese Education from the Florida Chinese Teachers Association.

Bolles Chinese teacher Chengmei Rothschild organized both events.
