TRANSPORTATION MAINTENANCE FACILITY

Transportation Maintenance Facility

- Bus Maintenance services are currently provided through an agreement with Parma City Schools, which is scheduled to expire July 1, 2026.

Operational Realities

- No in-house mechanic or service bay
- Private vendors are expensive and require longer wait times
- A small, older fleet means that delays in services or emergency repairs could cripple our ability to provide transportation

Building New

- Building would be costly, with at least an 18-month timeline
- Increase District's debt through financing
- Construction risks and inflation exposure
- Neighborhood Impacts

Potential Leasing Opportunity

➤ 6511 Eastland Road, Brook Park

➤ Available May 31

10,000 square foot facility with 2 drive-in doors (12 x 14) and 18-foot clearance

Lease: $5,625 per month = $67,500

Utilities: $2,000 per month = $24,000

Mechanic: $100,000 (Salary and Benefits)

Approximate Annual expense: $191,500

Capital Outlay: $100,000 * One-time expense

WINTER ATHLETICS & ACTIVITIES UPDATE

www.fairviewwarriors.com

» Winter Athletics Recap

This winter, 160 student-athletes represented Fairview Park City Schools, 102 high school and 58 middle school athletes. Their success included multiple conference and district championships, individual state-level accomplishments, and growing programs.

➤ Middle School Basketball

Both the 8th-grade boys and girls basketball teams captured conference championships, showcasing their hard work, teamwork, and commitment.

Varsity Boys Basketball

- » Conference Champions
- » District Champions (2nd time in school history)
- » Will Allen- Conference MVP
- » Ryan Barry - Coach of the Year

Varsity Girls Basketball

- » 30 wins over the past two seasons
- » Coach Karen Swanson Haan continues to build a strong culture for the future. This year, she organized a trip to the University of Notre Dame for middle school and high school athletes.

Bowling

- » Parker Karp qualified for the district tournament

Gymnastics

- » Sylvia Jankowski finished 12th in the all-around at the OHSAA State Meet

Swimming

- » Excited to have practices and meets at the Gemini Center next year

Cheer

- » Successful year under Head Coach McKenzie Haney, with growing interest at both the high school and middle school levels.

Wrestling
