

Benny's Fruit-Filled Find!

Benny the Banana was all dressed up for a fun picnic with his students. He wore his favorite colorful harvest vest and his cozy tweed cap.

But there was a big problem: he couldn't find the fruit-filled bouquet anywhere. "All the juiciest grapes are so high, and the best berries are too far back!" he sighed.

Suddenly, a friendly Robin and Bluebird chirped, "Don't worry, Benny! We can help!" They flew up and, using their strong beaks, carefully lowered big bunches of the juiciest purple grapes. "Amazing!" Benny cheered.

Then, guided by Monarch butterflies, a tiny Goldfinch pointed to where the biggest orange carrots were hiding. Benny, in his green boots, quickly gathered strawberries and blueberries. He put it all together into a magnificent bouquet with a heart charm. "Look, everyone! A tasty adventure for us all!" he cheered. They were so excited for their fruit-filled find!
