VII. Update: Personnel Discussion

Dr. Ericka Simmons, Assistant Superintendent, provided an update on staffing. Dr. Simmons highlighted staffing changes that occurred for the 25-26 school year and then addressed staffing/hiring needs for the 26-27 year due to retirements, resignations and internal transfers. Substitute coverage and staff leaves were also reviewed, along with a snapshot of hiring data, recruitment and new staff integration efforts and a primary level future staffing consideration.

VIII. Update: Primary Schools Smarter Start

Jenn Earhart, Primary Schools' Principal, led a discussion of a potential shift in the start date for primary students titled the "Smart Start" back-to-school plan. This plan would provide individual appointments for primary students on August 12th and 13th to explore the classroom, drop off supplies, and meet one-on-one with the teacher for brief 1:1 reading and math assessments. A staff professional development day would follow on August 14th to plan for each child's unique strengths and needs. Under this potential plan, all K-4 students beginning school on Monday, August 17th.
