Hi Donna –

I apologize for the delayed response. The Board truly only supervises the Superintendent, so they do not have to “delegate” authority for the Superintendent to supervise others. She is the CEO of the district and it is her responsibility to oversee operational matters, including personnel.

When I look online, the policy reads, “To provide for the appraisal of the efficiency of the Superintendent of Schools.” I think this is clearer than the wording below and more in line with other policies/bylaws such as 9271.

Good morning Rebecca,

I hope that you're doing well and I'm also hoping you can provide some guidance. At our last BOE meeting, Bylaw 9000 was reviewed and there was discussion around the wording of item 6 under Specific Powers and Duties.

For some background, this bylaw was first reviewed by the Policy Committee in October 2025. They had recommended the removal of the words 'Superintendent of Schools' and added 'personnel'. Since then we've had a changeover of BOE members and subsequently Committee members and the new Policy Committee recommends keeping the original language. However, one Board member would like to add this clarification:

To provide for the appraisal of the efficiency of personnel by directly evaluating the Superintendent as prescribed under Policy 2400 and by delegating this duty to the Superintendent for all other personnel.

Do you feel this wording would accurately clarify the duties of the Board vs the duties of the Superintendent regarding the appraisal of the efficiency of personnel?

Thank you for your help with this,
