Madeira Theatre Arts Presents The Addams Family

Madeira Theatre Arts presents its spring musical, The Addams Family, a comical feast that embraces the wackiness in every family. The play features an original story and a dilemma that's every father's nightmare. Wednesday Addams (Sarah Larranaga), the ultimate princess of darkness, has grown up and fallen in love with a sweet, smart young man from a respectable family - a man her parents have never met. And if that wasn't upsetting enough, Wednesday confides in her father and begs him not to tell her mother. Now her father, Gomez Addams (Asher Schilling), must do something he's never done before - keep a secret from his beloved wife, Morticia (Sophia Marston). Everything will change for the whole family on the fateful night they host a dinner for Wednesday's "normal" boyfriend and his parents.

"We are embracing the darkness this spring!", Director McKenna Flores said of the play. "I am excited to try something new with this group, you will not want to miss this!

A cast of 31 students and a crew of 28 will bring The Addams Family to Madeira High School's Medert Auditorium April 16 and 17 at 7 pm, and April 18 at 2 pm and 7 pm. Tickets are $12.00 and available online at madeiracityschools.org.
