

JEFTE I. NASO

SYNERGISTIC COLLABORATOR

About Me

I am 14 years old and Afro-Caribbean. My parents are from the Dominican Republic. I was born on the island of Antigua and lived there until June 24, 2025. That was a drastic change in my life. I left my home, my Church and my people. I go to Ponus Ridge Middle school in Norwalk, CT. I have a passion for school, trying to communicate with and interact with my peers. I like to play soccer and spend time outside in nature. I'm a happy soul who looks on the bright side of things. I love spending time with my family and what makes me happy is spending time with my 4 nephews. I look up to my sister, Wisleidy, and my father. Personally, I think I look like my father too.

I am an Effective Communicator when I work in groups and give every person in my group a specific job or role. When I work in a group I try to help others out; I try not to make myself the center of attention in the group. I try to make branches like the 3 branches of government. The key is to put your minds to together and to persevere to the end of a task together.

"Favorite song lyric."

Nemzzz : "This part of my life's redemption see it, I want it, we get it. I still walk with God, but battling demons in, I can't let them. They said that they love me But I still don't know their intention. I'm trying live my dream, they offering' P's, I don't wanna sell it, Nemzzz is talking about staying true to his "dream" (his soul/art) rather than selling out for money ("P's"). This is a direct parallel to Mark 8:36:

"For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"

"My favorite quote:

"We're not gods, we're men, who for whatever reason have been given extraordinary abilities. The question you need to ask yourself is: what kind of hero are you going to be?" — Barry Allen/the Flash

I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live." — Deuteronomy 30:19.

(This is a biblical answer to the question: "What kind of hero are you going to be?")
