Also Present: Dr. Edward A. Kliszus, Superintendent of Schools; Joseph Durney, Deputy Superintendent; Sandra Clohessy, School Business Administrator; and Cathy Maggi, District Clerk

Call to Order
Mrs. Brakewood called the meeting to order at 6:06 p.m. and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

President's Opening Remarks
Mrs. Brakewood talked about the summer coming to a close with teachers coming back the next day and students coming in next week. She also spoke about the work the custodians and buildings and grounds crews had completed in preparation of the opening the schools. There was a board retreat the previous day and she gave a staff update on saved positions with the retirements and resignations received since the budget passed in April. The board will also continue to speak with Senator Mayer and Assemblyman Otis as the board advocates for equitable state funding.

Public Comment
Mrs. Brakewood opened public comment noting Mr. Russo was on his way.

Nancy Donahue, Hobart Avenue, came to ask a question about re-registration and talked about a new group that the tax alliance group is now working with to work on re-registration. They have a petition signed by many for re-registration. She talked about other districts who are doing re-registration. They do not feel our current system is working and that they feel re-registration is important to the students who live in Port Chester.

Richard Hyman talked about what information is on the website regarding the capital project and has not seen new updates. He wanted to know if the bids have come in and the status of the high school.

Dr. Richard Buzin of Rye Brook came to thank the board for being the second of the five entities in the Town of Rye to pass a resolution to encourage our representatives Senator Mayor and Assemblyman Otis to look into changing state law regarding tax certioraris. He is also reaching out to the Westchester School Board Association

Peter Fineman, 46 Milton Court, made a suggestion regarding teaching runaway slave ads. Philipsburg Manor had a program where the New York Historical Society created a program for parents and teachers. He also suggested professionals, web sites and bringing people here to examine this issue.

Keith Morlino, Haines Boulevard, talked about the re-registration process.

Dom Cervi, Rye Brook, had read about the superintendent paying for his own insurance and wanted to know about what it cost the board.

Tizita Fekredengel, Smith Street, spoke about the bond, the closing of ELC and the effect it will have on JFK students and the overcrowding. They are looking for remedies on the overcrowding at JFK and the play areas.

Jody Helmle, 30 Austin Place, came and invited the board to the incoming kindergarten ice cream social. The back to school dance is on September 21st and she is hoping some members will attend.

Public Comment was closed.

Dr. Kliszus responded about re-registration and explained that re-registration is simply checking documents. In addition, we visit the homes with an investigator and send out first class mail to investigate "return to sender" letters. We also check al residency tips. By the Federal Law, students who are homeless have to be educated by us. There will be updates on the building projects soon on the website. There is going to be inconveniences with the building project and we ask people to be patient for the results that will add to beauty and efficiency. He also spoke about foundation aid and many of the reasons that were considered before ELC was closed. He also talked about the tax certioraris, which are a big concern with many districts. We will be talking to Senator Mayer about foundation aid and the Port Chester Schools. He noted that he cannot control what someone may have heard or read in the Westmore News about his personal insurance but noted that his insurance is his personal business and is not carried by the district. He thanked the PTA and all the events that they organize for our students and everything that they do.

Board of Education Roundtable/Discussion

Mr. Corbia received information from Mayor Falanka regarding immunizations for our students. Mr. Corbia inquired about Mr. Renda having surgery and Dr. Kliszus responded that Mr. Renda was doing well and was still on top of the various projects with Mr. Lunde filling in. Mr. Corbia also asked about receiving information on class sizes for the district. He also made an inquiry about Rico Dos Angelos who wanted to rent space for Martial Arts. He also spoke about re-registration at New Rochelle, which the state is now allowing them to do and it is being called a residency verification. He is also hoping that we could reach out to Mr. Vitagliano regarding a fairer way to fund schools and communities via taxes.

Mrs. Capeci talked about the board retreat that was held last night and thought it should be held in January. She did not attend and felt that there needed to be a healing process and would like everything to be transparent.

Mr. Wolff agreed that the whole board should meet again in January or February. Mr. Russo said that part of the healing process is to talk and there should definitely be another meeting. Mrs. Capeci then said that there are so many things that bring us together and that we can do good things for the district. Mr. Corbia thinks that a third party should come in and guide us at the board retreat. Mr. Russo mentioned the fall sport season will be starting and encouraged everyone to come out and support the teams. He wished everyone a great new school year. Mr. Wolff mentioned that Port Chester High School has been reported by the U.S. News and Report as ranking in the top 11% in New York State. Let us have a good year and support our schools by attending events. Dr. Kliszus said it is going to be a great year and Mrs. Brakewood said to enjoy the last few days of summer and Labor Day weekend. She thought that the board retreat was valuable. Mrs. Capeci wished everyone happy holidays for Yom Kippur.

The next board meeting will be held at the Middle School at 7 p.m. on September 25th.

There being no further business at 8:22 p.m., upon motion by Mrs. Wolff, seconded by Mr. Corbia and carried (5-0), the Board adjourned the meeting.
