Spring Sports Review

Mr. DeLattre presented the spring sports preview with schedules, expected numbers and issues with larger numbers in track and baseball. He stated he is working on additional JV softball games due to teams not having a JV team.

Restore the Roar Update

A Restore the Roar update was provided. By way of a donation, a vehicle was purchased for the Athletic Trainer and School Resource Professionals. A new tiger mascot is being considered to promote school spirit, contingent on student interest during tryouts; Mrs. Venios explained the tryout process and noted that the approximate cost of a new mascot costume is approximately $2,200.

Facilities Update

The district hosted the LHAC Swimming Championships in January and held many PIAA and District 6 basketball games.

The Physical Plant team is still working to obtain cost estimates for the turf, track, and lighting project, as well as for tennis court needs.
