

Music Department Report

April 2026
Prepared by Nate Bankert

From Mr. Bankert:

PV is hosting the LLMEA Middle School Choral Festival on Saturday April 18! 13 Middle Schools grades 6-8 from Lancaster and Lebanon Counties will be represented. The concert begins at 4pm. It will be a wonderful day of singing, and we are excited to show off the new building (and especially the auditorium) to surrounding communities!

Chamber Singers have been invited to sing at FPC Lancaster for a High School Chamber Choir Festival on Sunday April 19. The concert begins at 4pm. Free to the public.

Chamber Singers are honored to have been invited to sing at the Lancaster Festival of Voices concert Sunday April 26. The concert begins at 3pm and will be held at Trinity Lutheran in Lancaster. Free to the public.

PV Brave Sounds (grades 7/8) will perform at STEAM night April 9th. Performance begins at 7pm.

From Mr. Apgar:

Orff & Drum

The PV Elementary Orff & Drum has learned an “old favorite” Bad Monkey for our upcoming Spring Concert. We have also added 9 new learners to the group at Salisbury. We are excited to polish our musical selections for the spring performance.

From Mr. Ackerman:

Join Pequea Valley's rock bands
Into the Mayhem and Apollo's Axe as they perform at Levitt Pavilion at Steel Stacks in Bethlehem, PA on Sunday May 17, 2026.

The FREE concert features local school rock bands at an outdoor family-friendly show. Bring your lawn chairs, some food and enjoy an afternoon of great music.
(There will be other concessions as well)

101 Founder's Way-Bethlehem-18015

The music will start around noon and run until 8pm

APOLLO'S AXE performs at 2:40
INTO THE MAYHEM performs at 3:00

