FARGO PUBLIC SCHOOLS ANNOUNCES ADMINISTRATION ASSIGNMENTS

Fargo Public Schools announces two administrative assignments within the District.

Holli Huus has been named dean of students at Explorer Academy. She will assume the position for the 2026-27 school year from Lori Nappe who is retiring.

Huus has worked at Explorer Academy since 2021, first as a special education teacher from 2021-24 before beginning her current role as an instructional coach. She began her educational career as a special education teacher at Des Moines Public Schools from 2011-13 and served as a special education teacher at North St. Paul-Maplewood-Oakdale School District from 2013-2021.

Huus holds a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education from Luther College, a Master of Arts in Differentiated Instruction from Concordia University St. Paul, an Autism Certification from Bethel University, and a Principal Certification from Minnesota State University Moorhead.

Current Davies High School Assistant Principal Matthew Quintus will serve as assistant principal and activities coordinator at Davies beginning on July 1. He will assume the position from Lenny Ohlhauser who is retiring.

Quintus began as assistant principal at Davies this school year and previously served as assistant principal and activities coordinator at Ben Franklin Middle School from 2022-25. He taught physical science and chemistry at Davies from 2013-2021. Quintus began his educational career as a science teacher at Stanley High School in Stanley, N.D. from 2011-13, teaching physical science, chemistry, and physics. He was an assistant football coach, assistant basketball coach, and head boys track coach at both Stanley and Davies.

Quintus holds a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education: Science Composite from Dickinson State University and a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from North Dakota State University. He holds a Secondary Principal Certificate and a Secondary Education Certificate.
