The Heritage School seeks a full-time Spanish Foreign Language Teacher for the 2026-2027 school year. Candidates should be able to teach Spanish at an introductory level in a Middle School classroom setting. Applicants must be willing to become integral to a dynamic school community.

Founded in 1970, The Heritage School is a co-educational, independent, college preparatory school committed to providing an environment that develops the mind in preparation for college and later life, the body through competition and teamwork, the spirit through self-awareness and growth, and camaraderie through shared experience. Mind, body, spirit, and camaraderie are infused throughout the opportunities offered on and off campus in academics, fine arts, athletics, and service. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a balanced approach to these areas throughout his or her personal and professional life.

Located in a pecan grove in Newnan, GA, The Heritage School's beautiful 74-acre campus offers opportunities for students and faculty from Pre-Kindergarten through 12th Grade to interact meaningfully daily. Newnan is in the heart of Coweta County, just south of the Atlanta airport. With a population of over 130,000, the community offers families the advantages of a small town with the appeal of a nearby metropolis.

Interested and qualified candidates should submit a specific letter of interest and resume to:
