

PORTRAIT OF A PALM BEACH DAY ACADEMY GRADUATE

Independent Learners

PBDA students are confident self-advocates. Guided by a strong sense of responsibility, our graduates are motivated to take initiative and achieve their goals.

Critical Thinkers

PBDA students thoughtfully analyze information, make informed decisions, solve problems, and reflect on the process. Our graduates approach issues with an open mind and leave PBDA equipped with the skills and strategies necessary to thrive in secondary school, college, and life.

Respectful Citizens

PBDA students act with integrity and show respect at all times. Our graduates take responsibility for their actions, serve others, and make meaningful contributions to their communities.

Resilient Individuals

PBDA students adapt to change by reflecting on their challenges, adjusting their approach, and persisting through setbacks. Our graduates recognize those setbacks as opportunities to strengthen skills, judgment, and confidence.

Compassionate Communicators

PBDA students can express their ideas effectively, both verbally and in writing. Our graduates appreciate and respect the diverse viewpoints and perspectives they will encounter throughout their lives.
