Kasey McRay Returns to Lead Titans Boys Basketball

Mercer County Senior High School is excited to introduce Kasey McRay as the next Head Boys Basketball Coach. Coach McRay replaces Keith Adkins, who resigned after three years at the helm.

A Harrodsburg native, Coach McRay returns home with nine years of coaching experience across multiple levels, including stops at West Jessamine, Mercer County, Centre College, and Garrard County, where he most recently served as head coach. During his college career, he was a student manager under legendary Coach Rick Pitino at the University of Louisville.

McRay graduated from Mercer County Senior High School in 2010 and has earned recognition for his impact and leadership throughout his tenure. He was named the 2025 KABC 12th Region Coach of the Year and the 2026 Advocate-Messenger Area Co-Coach of the Year.

Known for his high energy, passion, and commitment to building strong relationships, McRay emphasizes program culture and player development as the foundation of his program.

“I’m grateful for the opportunity to return home and lead a program that means so much to me. I look forward to working with our student-athletes, helping them grow as young men both on and off the court. Our program will be built on a strong culture and a daily commitment to developing our players. We’ll work every day to represent our school and community the right way and build something everyone can be proud of. Go Titans”

Coach McRay and his wife, Olivia, have two children, Henderson and Sutton.

There will be a Community Meet and Greet at the High School from 4:30 - 5:00 this Thursday, April 16, to welcome Coach McRay and his family.
