

Continuing Student Concurrent Enrollment Appeal Form

Name: _____ PPSC S#: _____ Grade: _____

Enrollment Appeal Process

Students must meet the following requirements in order to be eligible to enroll in CP sponsored college-level courses:

- Have no more than one grade of D in PPSC and CP classes for the current semester and have a minimum cumulative weighted GPA of 2.00.

A student who earns more than one D, an F, or a W must do the following three things for the appeal process. A student who does not meet the criteria above must provide a typed statement explaining your reason for appealing in order to initiate the appeal process. The appeal will be reviewed by a committee and a decision will be made if the student may enroll in a concurrent enrollment class through College Pathways.

- Repay TCA for the cost of fees and textbooks or set up a repayment plan.
- Provide the following information and documentation below.
- Schedule a meeting with a CP College Advisor for yourself and a parent.
