Meet Candy Ulibarri

Candy Ulibarri – School Board Candidate

Candy Ulibarri is a dedicated parent, community advocate, and experienced public servant with a lifelong commitment to strengthening the community she calls home. With nearly two decades of service in high-responsibility roles, she brings a balanced approach of objectivity, compassion, and real-world decision-making to her candidacy for school board.

Candy earned her Bachelor's Degree from the University of Southern Colorado , now known as CSU Pueblo. Her education laid the foundation for a career centered on service, leadership, and continuous learning.

From 2006 to 2025, Candy served with the Pueblo Police Department in various roles, most notably, Emergency Services Dispatcher and Dispatch Training Coordinator. In these roles, she supported the public and first responders during critical situations while also helping train and develop staff. This experience required calm decision-making under pressure and a consistent focus on what serves the entire community.

Candy's commitment to service extends across multiple roles, giving her a well-rounded understanding of how systems impact families:
• Emergency Services Dispatcher & Training Coordinator (2006–2025)
Developed training programs, supported crisis response, and made real-time decisions impacting public safety
• Private Probation Officer
Gained insight into accountability, structure, and second chances
• Long-Term Care Social Worker (3 years)
Advocated for individuals and families navigating complex and emotional life transitions

Today, Candy continues to serve her community as a local real estate professional, where her work is rooted in a "community first" philosophy. She actively supports small businesses and local nonprofits.

What Candy Brings to the School Board:
• Objective, real-world decision-making under pressure
• Experience developing and evaluating policies and training systems
• A deep understanding of community needs across all stages of life
• A collaborative mindset focused on solutions—not politics
• A strong commitment to students, families, and educators
