

Central Middle School, a Title I, Part A school believes that parent & family engagement is directly linked to a students attendance, positive attitude, social-emotional development and overall achievement.

In addition, it is the policy of the school to plan jointly, implement and agree upon (with meaningful participation of parents, administrators, and teachers) programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in its Title I programs, thus complying with the Every Student Succeeds Acts. The policy will be distributed to parents/families and our community in a format and written in a language parents and families can understand. It will also be available on our campus website, parent center, & at parental meetings.

The following expectations for parent and family engagement will be implemented.

- 6 Conduct two annual meetings, on different days and at a convenient time (a.m.. & p.m.) to inform parents of the Title I, Part A program, its requirements, and their right to be involved.
- 7 Offer a flexible number of meetings, or home visits to facilitate parent and family engagement.
- 8 Involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of the parent and family engagement policy and student academic programs, including the school Parental and Family Engagement Policy, campus compact, and campus improvement plan (CIP).

- 10 Provide parents with timely information about Title I programs;
- 10 Provide a description and explanation of the curriculum in use, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the State academic standards.
- 12 Offer parents an evaluation after every meeting to provide feedback, suggestions and concerns to enhance student achievement.
- 13 Address the importance of a two-way communication between teachers and parents on an on-going basis through the use of parent-teacher conferences, school report cards, progress reports, meet the teacher night, open house, school calendar, announcements on marquee, call outs, home visits, emails, handouts—brochures, evaluation's, opportunities to volunteer and more.
- 13 Present Parents with access to the Campus Improvement Plan on our campus website. Parents will be able to submit any parent concerns about the plan when made available.
- 13 Ensuring that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, or other activities is sent to the parents of participating students in a timely manner and in their home language.

Building Capacity Requirements

At Central Middle School we shall ensure effective engagement and build capacity among the school, parents, and community by:

- 14 Providing assistance to help parents understand the State academic standards, State and local academic assessments, and the requirements related to improve the achievement of their children.

- 12 Providing materials and training that will empower parents to help their children achieve academic success such as literacy and Technology.
- 13 Training school teachers, specialized instruction support personnel, principals and other school leaders, and other staff on the value of positive connections and engagement between families and school, including higher student success rates.
- 14 Coordinating and integrating parental involvement programs and activities with Federal, State, and local programs, for parents to learn more about child development and rearing techniques. (parent resource information, literacy classes, substance use & prevention, academic, social-emotional workshop STAAR, bullying prevention, and more).
- 15 Ensuring that information related to school and parent/family programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parent/families in a format and language the parents can understand.
- 16 Providing other reasonable support for PFE (Parent and Family Engagement) Activities, parents may request documentation that demonstrates how the school is building capacity for family engagement. This includes materials such as publicity items, meeting agendas, sign-in sheets, meeting minutes, printed communications (like letters and newsletters), emails, phone call logs, and records of home visits.
