

Mr. Kaltenbach is an accomplished musician and dedicated educator whose passion for learning resonates as clearly as his music. A graduate of New Mexico State University, he holds both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Music Education, reflecting his deep commitment to his craft and to the art of teaching.

Drawing on his extensive background in music, Mr. Kaltenbach strives to inspire a love of learning in every student he teaches. He believes in fostering a classroom environment where curiosity, creativity, and hard work come together to help students grow as both musicians and individuals.

Outside of the classroom, Mr. Kaltenbach enjoys spending time with his wife and their two beloved cats, Eevee and Kesha.
