

Ms. Monje is a dedicated educator and advocate committed to supporting students and families on the path to college and career readiness. With two decades of experience in education and youth advocacy, she has helped countless students navigate the higher education landscape and access opportunities for postsecondary success.

A proud product of Albuquerque, Ms. Monje is a graduate of Albuquerque High School and the University of New Mexico, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology. She went on to complete her Master of Arts in Educational Leadership at Northeastern Illinois University as a participant in the NEIU Enlace higher education program.

For the past nine years, Ms. Monje has served as a valued member of the Leadership Schools community, where she works to empower students and strengthen pathways to academic achievement. Her deep roots in Albuquerque inform her commitment to serving local youth and families with cultural awareness and care.

Outside of her work in education, Ms. Monje enjoys traveling and spending time with her partner and their two young children.