

Looking for your next great read?

NoveList Plus provides recommendations for both fiction and nonfiction books. This powerful tool helps identify read-alike titles, series, authors, and genres. Find new books that match your interests, preferences, or even your current mood.

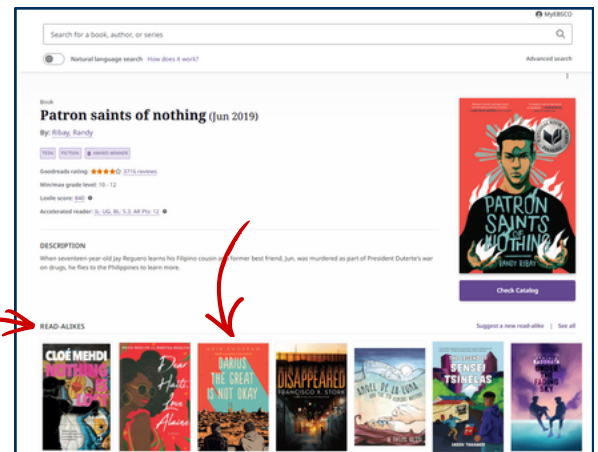

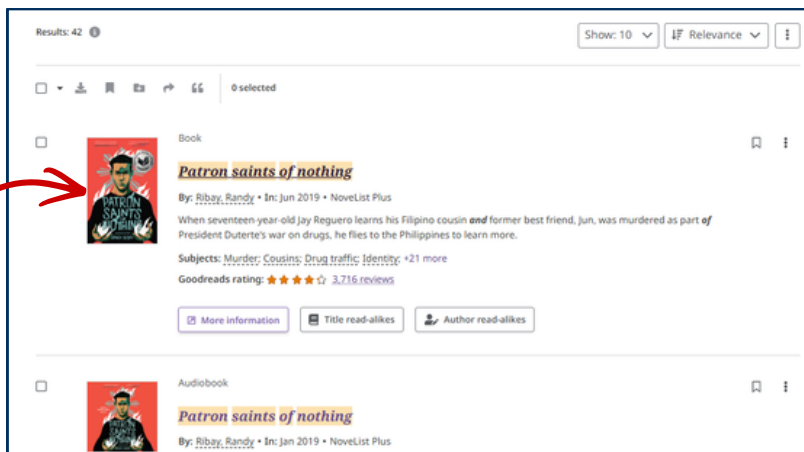

Getting started

1. Go to the HHS Media Center website at <https://hhs.hudson.k12.oh.us/departments/library/>
2. In the A-Z Databases & Digital Resources list, click on NoveList Plus.
3. To log in, enter the username and password credentials listed on the HHS Media Center webpage.

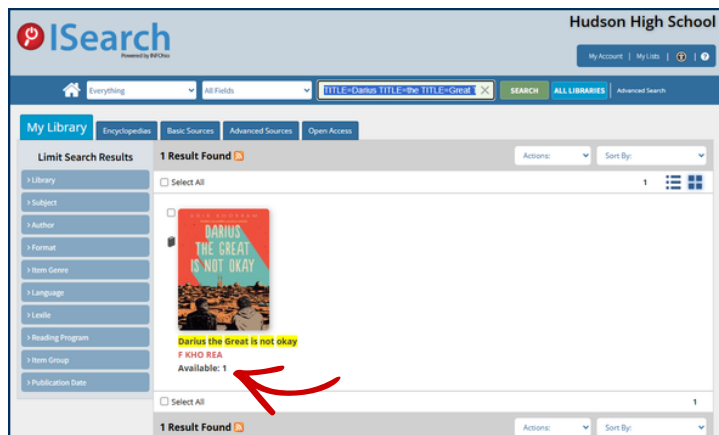

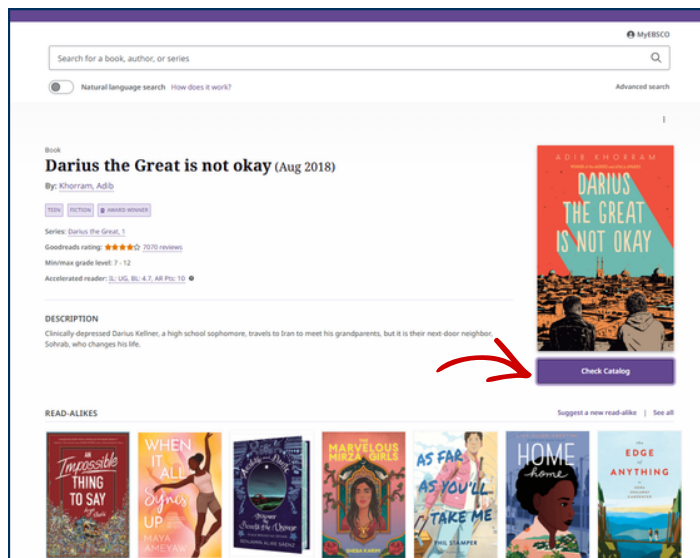

Discover book or author read-alikes

1. In the search field at the top of the page, type in a favorite book title, series, or author and then Search by clicking on the magnifying glass icon.
2. Select the book cover you want to explore. This will take you to the title summary, where you can find a description of the book, reviews, and suggestions for READ-ALIKES.

3. Select the book cover of the read-alike you want to explore further.
4. Found a great match? You can even check the HHS catalog to see if the book is in our library!

Read what you like

NovelList Plus has lots of other ways to find books that are a great fit for your interests. Head to the NovelList home page and use the links on the left side to find buzzy books, new titles, trending series, and more! Here are some of the ways you can explore this incredible resource.

When this:

Heard about a book on television or online?

Discover NovelList then Media mentions index

Looking for suggestions based on tastes, moods, or preferences?

Discover NovelList then Appeal factors index

Struggle to choose just one genre? Make your own unique mix.

Curated lists then Custom blends

Want to find a book you can't put down?

Curated lists then Must reads

Want to keep up with the newest titles?

Curated lists then Trending now

Love one specific genre?

Quick links then Genre guides

Want to a new book to listen to?

Quick links then Audiobooks

Looking for more bookish inspiration? Come visit the HHS Media Center.
We'd love to help you find your next great read!