EDMOND TOWN THEATRE
NEWTOWN, CT

OLIVIA

LIV,

WE JUST WANT YOU TO KNOW HOW INCREDIBLY PROUD WE ARE OF YOU. WATCHING YOU PURSUE YOUR THEATRE DREAMS WITH SO MUCH PASSION, COURAGE, AND DEDICATION FILLS OUR HEARTS IN A WAY WE CAN'T EVEN FULLY PUT INTO WORDS.

YOU JUST DON'T PERFORM—YOU LIGHT UP THE STAGE. THERE'S SOMETHING SO SPECIAL ABOUT THE WAY YOU BRING CHARACTERS TO LIFE, THE WAY YOU CONNECT WITH PEOPLE, AND THE CONFIDENCE YOU CARRY WHEN YOU STEP INTO THE SPOTLIGHT. YOU TRULY ARE A STAR, AND NOT JUST BECAUSE OF YOUR TALENT, BUT BECAUSE OF YOUR HEART, YOUR WORK ETHIC, AND YOUR BRAVERY IN CHASING WHAT YOU LOVE.

NO MATTER WHERE THIS JOURNEY TAKES YOU, WE HOPE YOU ALWAYS REMEMBER HOW EXTRAORDINARY YOU ARE. WE BELIEVE IN YOU ENDLESSLY, AND WILL ALWAYS BE YOUR BIGGEST FANS—FRONT ROW, CHEERING LOUDER THAN ANYONE.

KEEP SHINING, KEEP DREAMING, AND KEEP BEING EXACTLY WHO YOU ARE.

LOVE—MOM & DAD

Shayleigh Barrett. Shayleigh is a sophomore and thrilled to be participating in her eighth show and her fourth as a member of the stage crew. She loves being a part of the show and has always had a passion for theater and performing. Shayleigh plays basketball and enjoys listening to music, reading, writing and photography outside of school. She would like to thank Sabrina, Zach, and most importantly, her mother for always supporting her endeavors.

Chloe Becker. Chloe has been acting and singing as long as she can remember, and dancing for 8+ years! She is so unbelievably excited to play Brooke Wyndham and Margot in the musical Legally Blonde. Performing has always been something she loves, and she is so grateful to be part of this amazing cast!

Gabbi Borges. Gabbi Borges is a sophomore participating in her second musical at Immaculate. She has been singing ever since she can remember and has done theater since seventh grade. Along with theater, she participates in the Swim Team during the fall. She is very excited to continue her journey in theater and would like to thank her family and friends for all their support.

Melanie Bouwer. Melanie Bouwer is a sophomore and is excited to be participating in her second show as a part of the crew. She would like to thank her family and friends for all their support and encouragement. She wishes the best for the talented cast!

Landon Campo. Landon is excited to be participating in his third year of musicals at Immaculate. This year, he is thrilled to take on the role of Warner. Outside of the theater, Landon is a dedicated athlete and a member of both the school's football and lacrosse teams. He enjoys balancing athletics with performing and is grateful for the opportunity to be part of another great production at Immaculate.

Lille Carballo. Lillie is a freshman and is excited to be performing in her first musical at Immaculate. She has been playing the piano for 10 years and is a music enthusiast. She would love to thank her mother for bringing her to every rehearsal. She would also like to thank her friends for being involved and supporting her during the production, the directors and everyone who has put so much time into Legally Blonde.

Isabelle Carrasco. Freshman Isabel Carrasco is thrilled to be performing in the ensemble of Legally Blonde with the wonderful cast and friends. She's enjoyed four years of choir and loves music. Isabel would like to thank the directors of the show for giving her this opportunity to perform and everyone involved in the production who worked hard to make the show look amazing.

Emma Dalpe. Emma is a sophomore and thrilled to be part of the performance of Legally Blonde with such a talented cast! She loves playing a Delta Nu and jump-roping in “Whipped into Shape.” This is Emma’s second show at IHS, but not her second time on stage. She has been dancing tap and ballet at Just Dance since she was three years old and is delighted to bring her love of dance to the stage. Emma would like to thank God for this wonderful opportunity, Lisa and Sabrina for their help and expertise, her friends for listening to her sing the songs nonstop and her family for all their support (especially the driving!). Enjoy the show!

Samantha DiCandido. Sam is a sophomore from New Milford, with a strong background in vocal performance. She has been training in opera since the age of five and specializes in classical vocal technique. Sam participated in this year’s 2026 Western Regionals, opera competitions and has performed in a variety of school and community productions over the years. She is excited to continue her journey in musical theater at Immaculate and can’t wait to see what the next two years will bring.

Kayleigh Dickinson. Kayleigh is a senior at IHS and is thrilled to be making her musical debut in Legally Blonde as a member of the ensemble. She was in the fall drama, The Importance of Being Earnest as Merriman. Although this is her first time performing in a musical, she has loved being part of the experience and working alongside such a talented cast and crew. When Kayleigh isn’t on stage, she enjoys drawing, singing, and dancing. Kayleigh is especially grateful for the opportunity to step outside of her comfort zone in her senior year. She would like to thank her friends, family, and directors for their encouragement and support throughout the process. Enjoy the show!

Lawrence Eide. Lawrence is a senior at IHS who lives in Ridgefield, CT with two brothers. This is his first time participating in the high school musical, though he was involved in stage crew in the fall drama the past two years. He is grateful for everyone that has helped him get here, mainly his family. Lawrence hopes everyone enjoys the show!

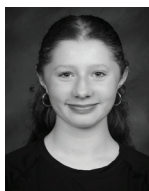

Julianna Felton. Julianna feels fortunate to have participated in Immaculate High School’s production of Anything Goes last year as an eighth grader. She is very excited for her second production with IHS. Besides theater she loves to draw, play golf, and create illusions with everyday objects. She would like to thank her parents for driving her, her dogs for listening to her practice singing, and God.

Eric Fleming. Eric is grateful to be making his freshman debut in IHS’ production of Legally Blonde! He would like to thank Sabrina, Zach and Lisa for putting this stellar show together and Mrs. Stone, Ms. Neil and the administration for their unwavering support of the Arts and the costume team for making everyone feel comfortable and stylish. Most of all, Eric would like to thank his wonderful castmates for making Legally Blonde an unforgettable experience. Special acknowledgements go to Bella, Landon and Olivia for their help and support. Finally, Eric thanks his brother Max for guiding him throughout the show.

Maximilian August Fleming. Max is a junior in his fourth musical at IHS. Last semester, he also co-directed The Importance of Being Earnest. Outside of theater, he participates in Mock Trial and his Political Awareness Club. For their efforts, Max thanks all the cast and crew, Zach Demko and the costume moms. Above all, Max is grateful to his parents for their unconditional support and inhuman patience

Abby Gaynor. Abby is an 8th grader at St Mary's School in Bethel, and is very excited to be in her first musical with Immaculate High School. Originally from California, she has danced since the age of 3, and currently dances jazz, contemporary, and ballet at Finline Theatre Arts. During her free time, Abby plays the piano, bakes, and plays with her dogs Finn and Oly. She would like to thank the cast and crew of Legally Blonde for making her feel welcome and supported.

Zane Han. Zane is a senior at Immaculate High School. This is his first year working on the Spring Musical as part of the backstage crew. He would like to thank the directors, cast and crew for making this production possible.

Bradley Horosky. Bradley is a freshman and excited for her second show at IHS! Bradley has been in many shows including last year's show Anything Goes (Ensemble). She has also performed in Beauty and the Beast (Children's Ensemble) and Evita (Children's Ensemble) at Richter Park, Beauty and the Beast Jr. (Babette/Le Fille), Secret Garden (Martha/Irish Dancer) and Aladdin Jr. (Genie)! Bradley is so excited to be joining this cast and wants to thank the directors for this amazing opportunity and her parents for their support! God Bless everyone and enjoy the show!

Maddy Janik. Maddy is a Senior participating in her fourth Spring Musical at IHS. She previously appeared as Romeo in Newsies, Flounder in The Little Mermaid and the newspaper photographer in Anything Goes. Maddy has also been involved in the IHS fall drama productions as Young Beth in Little Women and most recently as Gwendolen Fairfax in The Importance of Being Earnest. Maddy developed her love of performing in elementary school and has been following that passion ever since. In her free time she enjoys drawing, filmmaking, writing and spending time outdoors. Maddy would like to thank her family and friends for always cheering her on, and a special shoutout to Sabrina, Lisa, Zach and the entire cast and crew for making her last high school production such a memorable experience!

Allison Marsh. Allison is a junior at Immaculate. She has previously been in Immaculate's Newsies, The Little Mermaid, Anything Goes, and several other IHS fall dramas. Allison would like to thank everyone who has helped her in her theater experience, especially those involved in this show. She would also especially like to thank her castmates for their hard work and for making this show a success.

Audrey Matte. Audrey is a sophomore and is excited to be part of this year's production. This is one of Audrey's many times performing on stage. Some of her favorite past shows include Peter Pan as Wendy, The Addams Family, The Sound of Music as Gretl and Anything Goes. Audrey enjoys performing and being involved in theater, and she loves the energy and teamwork that come with being in a great show. Outside of theater, she plays ice hockey and field hockey. Audrey is so grateful to be part of the cast and hopes everyone enjoys the performance!

Owen Matte. Owen is a junior and is glad to participate in this year's production. His only actual production on stage was back in 5th grade as Olaf in Frozen. Owen hopes to relive an old, positive experience, and he found that the energy and teamwork that were required helped him form great friendships.. Outside of theater, he plays soccer, runs track and leads Immaculate's Engineering Team. Owen is grateful to be part of the cast and hopes everyone enjoys the performance!

Megan O'Connor. Megan is a freshman who plays softball and volleyball at Immaculate. She has been involved in theater for about four years, is extremely excited to be in this show and thinks the cast, directors, and crew are all talented and amazing people. She would like to thank Sabrina, Lisa and Zach for giving the cast the opportunity to do this fun musical!

Laurel Pucci. Laurel is thrilled to return to the stage as Vivian Kensington in Legally Blonde, proving that the third time really is the charm. She previously appeared in Legally Blonde as part of the ensemble and later as Elle Woods, and also played Mal in Descendants. Laurel is one of three sisters and was inspired to start performing by watching her oldest sister on stage. Outside of theater, Laurel plays softball and enjoys spending time with her friends and walking her dog, Cosmo. She would like to thank her family, friends and directors for their support and hopes you enjoy the show.

AJ Ralph. AJ is excited to be part of Legally Blonde as a member of the ensemble in his first high school musical. He has really enjoyed the experience of being on stage, meeting new people and trying something new—while also helping out with stage crew behind the scenes. Outside of theater, he enjoys playing soccer, staying active and spending time with friends. He would like to thank his friends and family for their constant support and encouragement, and he hopes you enjoy the show!

Abigail Ransley. Abigail is a senior who has been part of the spring production's stage crew since junior year and has been contributing to Immaculate's theater shows since freshman year—from acting to composing. She would like to thank her family and friends for supporting her performing arts journey!

Katelyn Ropiak. Katelyn is a sophomore and thrilled to be part of the stage crew for this year's production of Legally Blonde. Before working behind the scenes, Katelyn performed on stage as an Irish dancer, which helped spark her interest in theater. This is her first year on stage crew, and she has enjoyed being part of the teamwork that helps the show run smoothly. Katelyn would like to thank the directors, cast and crew for their hard work and for making this such a memorable experience.

Olivia Scherer. Olivia, a junior at Immaculate High School, has been a part of the musical productions for four years. She previously appeared in Newsies (Ensemble), The Little Mermaid (Ursula), and Anything Goes (Reno Sweeney), and is thrilled to be taking the stage as Elle Woods in this year's production of Legally Blonde. Olivia has been involved in theater since she was seven years old, and anyone who knows her knows musical theater has always been a huge part of her life. She would like to give a big thank you to her mom, who pushes her to do the best she can every day and supports her through everything. Olivia is incredibly grateful for the friendships, memories and experiences IHS theater has given her over the years.

Reese Sirois. Reese is in 8th grade at St. Rose of Lima School. She has always had a passion for singing and acting, and a deep love of theater. Some of her roles include Brooke Wyndham in Legally Blonde, Ursula in The Little Mermaid, and currently Regina George in Mean Girls. In addition to theater, Reese plays volleyball, skis and does track. She would like to thank the directors and IHS for giving her the opportunity to perform in the show.

Julia Skrzypczyk. Julia is grateful to be included as part of the stage crew in IHS's production of Legally Blonde this year. This is Julia's second musical at Immaculate, and her first year as part of the stage crew. She previously co-directed Immaculate's 2025 fall play, The Importance of Being Earnest along with Max Fleming, and is so thankful for everyone's help to make this musical possible!

Tori Swearingen. Tori has been involved in stage crew since middle school, and now as a senior in high school it has become an important part of her life. She enjoys working behind the scenes to help bring productions together and values being part of a team. Through stage crew, she has learned responsibility and teamwork while thriving in a fast-paced environment. Outside of theater, Tori loves to swim and stay active, which helps her stay focused and energized.

Cosette Timmel. Cosette is a senior and is returning for her fourth musical at Immaculate High School. She started as an ensemble member in Newsies, as Flotsam in The Little Mermaid and in various roles in Anything Goes. Cosette has been in the theater on and off since kindergarten; her family on both sides consists of dancers and actors for generations. Off the stage, Cosette likes to engage in other forms of art, such as painting or drawing. She is excited to perform one final time and wishes everyone the best.

Satine Timmel. Satine is a sophomore participating in her third musical at Immaculate. She has done theater since before kindergarten starring as Alice in Alice in Wonderland. She started her high school experience while in eighth grade appearing in The Little Mermaid. Satine also participates in swimming during the fall and attends indoor track practice during the winter. She would like to thank everyone for their support, especially her parents, who have always been there no matter what.

Isabella Tom. Isabella is a sophomore excited to be involved in her first musical as a member of the Legally Blonde stage crew. She is on the tennis and field hockey teams, and her extracurricular activities include Youth Volunteer Corp and Spanish Honor Society. Isabella would like to thank her friends for encouraging her to join the crew and wishes the cast of Legally Blonde a great show!

Caitlin Trainor. Caitlin is the Assistant Manager for Stage Crew and works on lighting. She's loved helping the show come together and watching such a talented cast and crew in action. Caitlin is thrilled to be part of this production.

Hannah Trotman. Hannah Trotman is a senior working on her third musical at Immaculate High School. When she's not backstage, she's playing tennis and hockey. She'd like to thank Sabrina, Zach and her parents for their support! To everyone participating in the performance of Legally Blonde, break a leg!

Alicia Ventresca. Alicia is a senior who you might recognize from the fall drama productions of The Importance of Being Earnest (Lady Bracknell) or Little Women (Jo March). She's also taken part in Immaculate's Anything Goes (reporter) and The Little Mermaid. Offstage, she is a coffee barista, daily prayer and announcement speaker and film enthusiast. She would love to thank her friends who have always supported her and everyone who is involved in this production!

Haley Ventresca. Haley is a freshman and has been performing in musicals for about 3 years. She enjoys the thrill of what music and choreography can put together. Appearing in High School Musical, A Little Bit of Broadway, Cinderella, and now Legally Blonde, she has gotten to experience many amazing shows and discovered the confidence to perform in front of others, expressing herself in this form of artistry. She is enthusiastic towards her friends, cast mates, and directors that have supported her throughout the process.

Lyla Wolf. Lyla is excited to be participating in her second musical at IHS. She's been dancing since the age of 2, training in ballet, pointe, tap, contemporary, jazz and hiphop. She trains at the Ridgefield Conservatory of Dance and has attended numerous summer training programs, most recently at the Rock School of Dance in Philadelphia. She recently performed lead roles in the 2025 Nutcracker at the Ridgefield Playhouse. Lyla is grateful for this opportunity and thanks the entire team, her castmates and her family for all the support and encouragement.

Adrianna Wright. Adrianna attends St. Mary School and is super excited to be doing her first show with Immaculate High School. Adrianna played Ursula in the St. Mary School's production of The Little Mermaid Jr. and was Grandma Josephina in Willy Wonka Jr. with TheatreWorks in New Milford. She is also the lead singer and bassist for her band "Seltzer." She has studied and played flute for three years and is self-taught on piano and bass. Adrianna would like to congratulate the cast and crew of Legally

Blonde and thank everyone for making her feel so welcome.

Isabella Xocoy. Bella (Paulette) is a Senior in her final high school musical. She has performed in musical productions since she was in the fifth grade for Wilton Children's Theater. She loves singing and playing instruments as well as participating in sports like volleyball. She would love to thank her family for always being by her side. She also would like to thank her castmates and technicians for making the show great and fun. Finally, to everyone who is participating in the performance of

Legally Blonde, break a leg

BREAK A LEG, CAST!

All your hard work, late rehearsals, and dedication are about to take center stage. We couldn't be more proud of the energy and talent you've poured into this production. From the first note to the final bow, enjoy every moment—you've earned it.

With applause and admiration,
Your Faculty & Staff
