

Mr. Rose is a proud Albuquerque native dedicated to serving students in his home community. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education with a concentration in English Language Arts from the University of New Mexico, where he developed a strong foundation in literacy instruction, writing pedagogy, and collaborative learning practices.

Mr. Rose completed his student teaching at Siembra Leadership High School, where he embraced the project-based learning model and the school's tight-knit, student-centered community. This experience shaped his instructional philosophy, which centers on fostering critical thinking, authentic writing, and meaningful classroom discussion. He is committed to creating an inclusive learning environment where every student feels empowered to find and share their voice.

Beyond the classroom, Mr. Rose is an active contributor to Albuquerque's local music scene, performing regularly with his band at venues throughout the downtown area. He draws on his background in music and performing arts to encourage creative expression, build student confidence, and support the whole-child approach that is central to the Siembra community.
