Purpose of Title I, Part D, Subpart 2

The purpose of Title I, Part D, Subpart 2 is to support the operation of local educational agency programs that involve collaboration with locally operated correctional facilities:

- to carry out high quality education programs to prepare children and youth for secondary school completion, training, employment, or further education;
- to provide activities to facilitate the transition of such children and youth from the correctional program to further education or employment; and
- to operation programs in local schools, including schools operated or funded by the Bureau of Indian Education, for children and youth returning from correctional facilities, and programs which may serve at-risk children and youth.

Responsibility of Houston Independent School District (HISD) and Local Residential Facility

- HISD will provide equitable services to the Facility through a third-party vendor.
- HISD and the Facility will:
  - work together so that the program at the Facility will be administered in accordance with all applicable statues and regulations,
  - be available for ongoing consultations throughout the school year,
  - maintain records of services being provided and students being served, and
  - ensure that all services are supplemental to what is already being provided by the Facility.

Title I, Part D, Subpart 2 — Prevention and Intervention Programs for Children and Youth who are Neglected, Delinquent or At-Risk

SEC. 1425. [20 U.S.C. 6455] PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS FOR CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES RECEIVING FUNDS UNDER THIS SECTION

Each correctional facility entering into an agreement with a local educational agency under section 1423(2) to provide services to children and youth under this subpart shall—

1. Ensure educational programs are coordinated with the student's home school, particularly with respect to a student with an individualized education program under Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act;
2. Notify LEA if the child or youth is identified as in need of special education services while in the correctional facility;
3. Provide transition assistance to help the child or youth stay in school, including coordination of services for the family, counseling, assistance in accessing drug and alcohol abuse prevention programs, tutoring, and family counseling;
4. Provide support programs that encourage children and youth who have dropped out of school to reenter school and attain a regular high school diploma or provide children and youth with the skills necessary to gain employment or seek a regular high school diploma or high school equivalency certificate;
5. Ensure correctional facility is staffed with teachers and other qualified staff who are trained to work with children and youth with disabilities;
6. Ensure educational programs are related to assisting students to meet the challenging State academic standards;
7. Use technology to assist in coordinating educational programs between the correctional facility and the community school;
8. Involve parents in efforts to improve the educational achievement of their children and prevent the further involvement of delinquent activities;
9. Coordinate funds with other local, State, and Federal funds available to provide services (i.e., Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, and career and technical education funds);
10. Coordinate programs with activities funded under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, if applicable;
11. Develop training, curriculum-based youth entrepreneurship, education, and mentoring programs for children and youth;
12. Work with the child's or youth's family members and the LEA that most recently provided services to the child or youth to ensure relevant and appropriate academic records and plans are shared jointly; and
13. Consult with the LEA for a period jointly determined necessary by the correctional facility and the LEA upon discharge from that facility, to coordinate educational services so as to minimize disruption to the child's or youth's achievement.

Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended by P.L. 114-95, the Every Students Succeeds Act (ESSA), Enacted December 10, 2015
