Description

The Luxemburg-Casco School District has an opening for a full time Speech/Language Pathologist starting the 2026-27 school year.

The Luxemburg-Casco School District prides itself on our commitment to academic excellence and student growth. Our district stands out in northeast Wisconsin, consistently ranking as a top performer according to state report cards. At the heart of our success is the strong sense of community and teamwork among staff members, who are passionate about making a positive impact on every student. As a Spartan, you will join a dedicated team of professionals focused on supporting and lifting up students.

- Develop and Implement IEPs: Write, implement, and monitor Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) for students with speech and language disorders, regularly assessing progress and making adjustments as needed.
- Conduct Evaluations: Complete comprehensive evaluations to assess speech and language skills, identifying students' strengths and areas for growth.
- Provide Therapy Services: Deliver speech and language therapy in a variety of settings, including special education classrooms, general education environments, and other natural environments, addressing a full range of communication disorders.

- Collaborate with School Teams: Work closely with a dedicated team of speech and language professionals, as well as teachers, administrators, and support staff, to ensure coordinated and effective support for all students.
- Engage with Families: Provide guidance and strategies to families to support speech and language development at home, fostering a partnership in the student's growth.
- Embrace Growth: Keep up-to-date with best practices, research, and technological advancements in speech-language pathology, maintaining a flexible and growth-oriented mindset.
- Dedication to Professional Growth: Maintain a growth mindset, staying informed on the latest developments and actively collaborating with colleagues to enhance skills and knowledge.
- Champion Inclusive Education: Show a strong commitment to promoting inclusive learning environments and uphold the belief that every student, regardless of their challenges, is capable of achieving success.
