CCSD and Regional Spelling Bee Winners

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of CCSD and Regional Spelling Bee Winners

Summary Explanation and Background

E.T. Booth MS eighth-grader Miller Inthirathvongsy placed first in the CCSD Spelling Bee. Arnold Mill ES fourth-grader Vanya Singh earned second place; Sixes ES fifth-grader Griffin Mincey, third place; and Oak Grove ES STEAM Academy fourth-grader Mac Wells, fourth place. All four students advanced to the Region Bee where Miller Inthirathvongsy won first place!

School winners from elementary and middle schools districtwide put their spelling skills to the test in the annual competition, which is sponsored by Cherokee County Association of Educators and the Georgia Association of Educators. Bekki Couch is the GAE Spelling Bee Coordinator; Joy Silk, CCSD director of teaching and learning, served as caller of the words. Judges included Tiffany Robbins, Bekki Couch and Jennifer Campbell.
