ATTENDANCE CORNER

School Attendance:

Even during shorter weeks or those leading into vacations, valuable instruction, classroom activities, and assessments continue. When students miss these days, they can fall behind and miss out on important learning experiences that are not always easy to make up.

We kindly ask for your support in ensuring that your child attends school each day, unless they are ill or have an emergency. Consistent attendance helps students stay engaged, maintain routines, and finish strong before each weekend. Thank you for partnering with us to support your child's success. We appreciate your continued commitment to making attendance a priority.
