Policy Number: B114
Title: Work-Study
Section: Programs

I. Purpose

The Joint Committee shall provide a work-study program for the employment of qualified students. This will assist students with supplemental income while providing necessary services for the school.

II. Authority

The Director shall limit employment to the following criteria:

Employment is limited to EASTERN students.

Wages will be at the rate approved by the Joint Committee.

Employment may not be during school hours.

Parental permission is required.

Working papers are required below 18 years of age.

Students are permitted to work up to four hours per day when school is in session, and eight hours on days when school is not in session.

While EASTERN will actively assist students in obtaining work-study opportunities, EASTERN does not guarantee any student's participation in a work-study program.
