How We Got Here

Five years ago, an effort was made to increase in-district special education programming:

- Limited outside agency and BOCES placements
- More robust and reliable in-district programmatic options
- High-level of in-district instructor passion and professionalism

As a result, an increased sense of meeting holistic student needs has emerged.

Mason's Mission

Because Every Child Deserves the Right to Play

- Play for a disabled child is one of the most important aspects of therapy.
- Interaction with others and a way to engage with the environment around them is crucial to their development and quality of life.
- Quality inclusive playgrounds are not prevalent.
