	Establish purpose and goals for Site council	SCIP-introduction of what it looks like this year Comprehensive site councils, at CHE Functioned as an advisory group, one of the first project, mission and value statement. He wanted that pervasive through the culture. PTA raised $18,000 for student funds, so site council Collaborative decision space was what the work was leaning on. In practice it was different than in theory
Establish membership rules	In the past there weren't elections, folks who were interested served Principal, two teachers, six or seven parents Send a SMORE asking who wants to serve, then putting out a ballot. Suggestion of

		keeping Site Council members from last year and having a ballot for new members. Reach out to colleagues &amp; see what interest there is to serve Community Partners, community members-how do we do that and maintain parity, as we're looking to build, we can see what questions emerge Partners-Reading Results, Champions, Every Child, foster care community (Maya)
		Class size decreased          Concerned about science score-very low          Alarming, 2021-2022, all white staff, 11 languages spoken, staff not reflective of that, representation matters          One counselor to support all our students          Less than 2% population for African American Biggest achievement gains, boys, white kids, tag kids had big jumps. Big dive for girls and student with disabilities, dramatic decline, not reflective Disabilities piece, seeing the dives also
	Was this a good use of your time?          What changes because we met?	Yes          Grateful for us to sit with data, site council work is not stagnant          Our ability to have an accurate narrative about what we're doing, super helpful, having insight into those trends, starting the explorations of driving factors that are guiding, really digging into the flags into the latest          Foundational, relationship building, impacts how we do our work.          I learn so much from listening to all the perspectives that folks bring into this space. I'm grateful for our time together and for the opportunity to learn from everyone's experiences.
