F. Business Items (30 Mins/Information)

F-1: SB 707 Amendment to California Open Meeting Act (information)

Staff presented the new SB 707, which allows subsidiary committees formed by Boards of Education to meet remotely under certain conditions. The committee agreed that it prefers to continue meeting in person, but would like to reserve the option of remote participation when it's needed.

F-2: Review of the First Draft of the 2024-25 Annual Report (information)

Staff and the committee discussed staff's first draft of the 2024-25 Parcel Tax Program Annual Staff Report. The committee members discussed changes they would like to see, including:

- More information on academic outcomes
- A graph showing the amount each AUSD student receives from state funding, federal funding, and parcel tax
- Better explanations of LCFF

Committee members asked that staff draft the committee report and also be prepared to discuss the format of next year's report (the first Measure E report).

F. Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 6:40 pm.
