Top Priorities in the Budget

Top Priorities:

- Class Size Reduction: 1st, 4th, 5th. We were allocated one less 1st grade.
- 5 Specialists Art, Music, PE, Humanities, Library- We would like to go back to 5 Specials.
- AP- Important to the team this year
- CIS-This includes the wrap-around services and home visit component

- AP -Possibly a 2nd AP
- Counselor- Staff are leary of a counselor because it takes a special person for our students to trust. It's on the list to add in the budget, so if we interview and do not find the right person, we will try again next year.
- Everyone wanted Art back in the rotation, Students may flourish in Art. It's great for them to develop a talent. And having humanities for teaching the Leader in Me is helpful.
- Basham explained about filling in the position for the Art teacher. We increase our chances for getting an Art teacher. Mrs. Love is not coming back to us. Cooper was discussing how Art teachers have gained skills in the virtual setting when a concern about Art was raised.
- Basham and the team are selective about who we hire, and we will only hire those who are a good fit for RTES.
- Cooper moves to approve the budget. Trotter agrees, Carlson seconds. Everyone approves.

Staff return February 22, 2021

Students return in the Hybrid Model 3/1/2021

We are in the planning stages of the hybrid plan. Basham is looking at data, the number of students coming back, the number of staff coming back, does it match. There are lots of pieces, but we are planning. Many staff are coming into the building, and all teachers teaching hybrid will be back in the building Feb 22.

Keep eyes open for information

Are they still going to have tutoring before and after school. Safe Key is starting back up, but we are not sure if tutoring will be online or not.

Trotter asks about next year's interest form.
