

Veronica Jimenez, ELL Lead / 12th Grade Performance Coach & Advisor, brings warmth, dedication, and a deep commitment to student success to the Siembra Leadership High School community. Originally from Hollywood, California, she relocated to Albuquerque at the age of 13 and has since made New Mexico her home.

Before joining the Siembra family, Ms. Jimenez served as a Language Arts teacher at Washington Middle School for 13 years, where she built a strong foundation of experience supporting middle-level learners. Her dedication to the craft of teaching is reflected in her extensive academic preparation. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Education and a Master's degree in Multicultural Education from the University of New Mexico, as well as a second Master's degree in Educational Administration from New Mexico Highlands University's Rio Rancho campus.

Ms. Jimenez is driven by a genuine desire to make a positive difference in the lives of her students. She is known for taking the time to connect with each student, offering support with both academic work and the personal challenges young people navigate along the way. Her caring approach helps foster a classroom environment where students feel seen, heard, and empowered to succeed.

Outside of the classroom, Ms. Jimenez is a devoted mom and partner who values family deeply. That same spirit of care and connection extends to her colleagues and students, making her a valued member of the Siembra Leadership High School community.
