

Arryin Joseph HR and Payroll Coordinator, brings more than 11 years of progressive experience in human resources and payroll operations to Albuquerque Public Schools. Her background spans the healthcare, retail, and hospitality sectors, equipping her with a broad, well-rounded perspective that informs thoughtful and people-centered HR practices across the district.

Ms. Joseph supports APS staff and administrators in a wide range of HR functions, including employee relations, benefits administration, payroll coordination, regulatory compliance, talent acquisition, performance management, and policy development. She is dedicated to aligning human resources strategies with the district's mission of serving students, families, and the greater Albuquerque community.

Ms. Joseph is a steadfast advocate for workplace cultures built on the principles of diversity, equity, and inclusion values that align closely with APS's commitment to fostering environments where every employee feels respected, supported, and empowered to succeed. Known for her proactive, solutions-oriented approach, she works collaboratively with school and district leadership to streamline processes, strengthen organizational systems, and advance staff engagement, well-being, and overall effectiveness.
