

that we have a very good shot at winning the title. . . . But, to come out and say that we're a clear-cut favorite because we have the best team, well, I'm not ready to say that at all," Cormier said.

"Call it cautious optimism," he said, because of the untested nature of the group on the frontcourt and optimistic about the deadly skills of the Green basketball players.

"If you look at our team as an opposing coach would, you'd say we're very strong on the perimeter and unproven, not bad, cited about the hoop, Bazzuk said, "The dead spots helped us against some teams, but they hurt us, too."

"The reason we were pretty successful in Alumni Gym last year was not because of the floor," Bazzuk said, "because of the gym," and he pointed to the crowd. "We had a lot of community support that we got. Their willingness to get in back of this team was phenomenal. That was our sixth man," Cormier said.

With the anticipation building in the stu-

First-team All-Ivy last season, junior Liz Waller is one key to this year's success.

cessful program," Hullah said, although she said she did not think the team got enough student turnout at games. "The team does not get the support from its peer group," she said.

a two-person boat in each division. Regattas typically consist of several short races, each lasting about 20 minutes, around a triangular course. Since boats earn points in each male opposition later. Just as this issue went to press the women placed first out of 12 teams at the Women's New England Championships at Harvard.

Celebrating 40 Summers of Basketball Excellence

40 YEARS OF BASKETBALL EXCELLENCE

TEACHING BASKETBALL THE RIGHT WAY SINCE 1986

Mid-Cape Hoop School has been Cape Cod's premier summer basketball camp, where young athletes grow into skilled players and confident individuals. More than a camp, Mid-Cape is a community and a tradition, built on a passion for teaching basketball the right way and helping campers learn, compete, and have fun.

SESSION 1
JULY 6-10

SESSION 2
JULY 13-17

SESSION 3
JULY 20-24

SESSION 4
JULY 27-31

WHERE BASKETBALL TALENT TRAINS OFF SEASON
ONE GOAL: NEXT SEASON IS YOUR BEST GAME.

MidCapeHoopSchool.com for all info!