The Heritage School is seeking a Lower School Teacher to join our Lower School Division in August of 2026. The Lower School Teacher is responsible for planning and implementing a rigorous yet nurturing instructional program that supports the academic, social, and emotional development of each child. This role requires a commitment to educating the whole child in alignment with the school's mission and educational philosophy while maintaining a positive and supportive classroom environment.

The Lower School Teacher must hold a bachelor's degree in Education or a related field and possess a valid, up-to-date K-5 teaching certificate. The successful candidate will demonstrate experience with differentiated instruction and specialized teaching techniques, along with strong classroom management, communication, and organizational skills. A commitment to continuous professional growth and a collaborative approach to teamwork are essential. The ideal candidate brings additional training and/or certifications in Reading, Writing, or Mathematics and has experience with Orton-Gillingham instruction. This individual is dedicated to supporting diverse learners and enhancing student achievement through thoughtful, research-based instructional practices.

Founded in 1970, The Heritage School is a co-educational, independent, college preparatory school committed to providing an environment that develops the mind in preparation for college and later life, the body through competition and teamwork, the spirit through self-awareness and growth, and camaraderie through shared experience. Mind, body, spirit, and camaraderie are infused throughout the opportunities offered on and off campus in academics, fine arts, athletics and service. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a balanced approach to these areas throughout his or her personal and professional life.

Located in a pecan grove in Newnan, GA, The Heritage School's beautiful 73-acre campus offers opportunities for students and faculty from PreK 3 through 12th Grade to interact in meaningful ways every day. Newnan is situated in the heart of Coweta County, just south of the Atlanta airport. With a population over 130,000, the community offers families the advantages of a small town with the appeal of a nearby metropolis.

Interested and qualified candidates should submit a specific letter of interest and resume to:
