Trinity-Pawling FOOTBALL

PHILOSOPHY

At Trinity Pawling, we strive to give every athlete, regardless of talent, a tremendous developmental experience. It is essential that we develop through a holistic mindset that coaches and teaches our young men to 'honor their gifts' on and off the field. Our counter-cultural push to have boys contribute in multiple sports as well as our full-year strength and conditioning program pushes them to be the best versions of themselves in all walks of life. We strive to get to know each young man as individuals and serve as an extension of their families as well as mentors in their lives — in return, we expect them to compete in every aspect of their journey here at Trinity-Pawling.

HISTORY

The Pride has a long history of Erickson League Championships and competition in the NEPSAC Championship Bowl Games. Trinity-Pawling's rich history of football tradition stretches back to the founding of the School in 1907. The Pride has two New England Class A Championships, four New England Bowl victories, and five Erickson Conference Championships.

LEAGUE

Trinity-Pawling competes in the prestigious New England Prep School Athletic Conference (NEPSAC) in Football. The Pride plays a highly competitive eight-game schedule against elite teams from across New England, including St. Paul's School, Belmont Hill, Tabor Academy, Milton Academy, St. Sebastian's, Buckingham Browne & Nichols, as well as local rivals Canterbury and Hotchkiss.

FACILITIES

- Coratti Field: Home of Trinity-Pawling Football; recently renovated with new turf and enhanced with a video capture and analysis system. Coratti Field is very accessible to our community.
- Smith Field House: Opened in 2017

FACULTY

- Head Varsity Football Coach Michael Livingston is a University of Connecticut graduate and brings over 12 years of Division I college coaching experience to the program. Coach Livingston also teaches in the English Department.
- Senior Assistant Varsity Coach and Recruiting Coordinator Nic Esposito plays a vital role in supporting the growth and success of the football program. Coach Esposito is a graduate of SUNY Brockport football, while also playing his graduate year at Western Connecticut State. He also teaches in our History Department.
