Branchville Masonic Lodge 2026 Scholarship Essay Topic

Along the path of life, we are constantly faced with situations where we find ourselves at a crossroad. Often times, we seek the advice from others to help us make the conscious decision that needs to be made. Such life decisions are often not easy ones to make but ultimately must be made in order to define who we truly are.

Topic:

Reflecting thus far upon your life, what do you consider to be the finest advice you have received. Describe both the impact on your life and the impact on your plans moving forward into your next chapter of life.
