5 Supplemental Resources Vetting Document

6

7 Supplemental Resources are additional instructional resources that consistently support or
 8 enhance instruction, tied to course standards. Supplemental resources cannot replace or supplant
 9 board approved curriculum materials. Selection of supplemental resources should be a
 10 cooperative, continuing process in which teachers have the primary responsibility for selection.
 11 Please use this form to guide your process for vetting any supplemental resource you would like
 12 to have considered for your classroom.

13

14 Examples:

15 Secondary Social Studies- showing a movie that reinforces historical standards
 16 from the curriculum OR a news source used each day/week to share current 17 events.

19 Elementary: Heggerty for teaching phonemic awareness
