D. LOCAL CONTROL ACCOUNTABILITY PLAN (LCAP) MID-YEAR REPORT. Review and discussion of survey results and 2026 LCAP Mid-Year Report. The report will be presented to the San Pasqual Union School District Governing Board on February 10, 2026.

- Brief overview- 2026 LCAP presentation.

- Staff- ½, families- ⅓, students 60% responded.
- Academic rigor- 75% or more approve.
- 7% of middle school students responded yes to suicidal ideations. The school feels like it has done a good job identifying and providing support to at risk students.
- Bullying- consensus that bullying is not allowed on campus. Added in training for middle school to show them how to identify and report bullying. Will be adding in training for Elementary school.
- Bryn suggested yard duties sit in on staff meeting regarding emotional regulation.
- Tech at home- Very high numbers for students and parents feeling safe online. Most modalities are streaming, game based, video based- high risk platforms.
- Safe at school- Overwhelming positive results.
- Programs and support- Certified staff: reading intervention ranked highest; classified staff: instructional aides ranked highest; parents: library services ranked highest.
- Parent engagement- high scores regarding engagement
- Quality of leadership- High results on school leadership and support. Unsure about governing board.
