APRIL 23, 2026

Families,

We have had a terrific week enjoying the nice weather for outdoor recess. Tomorrow we will have our PBIS assemblies to celebrate our hard work of following expectations in different areas of the school as well as completing our work in reading and math during the time given within each content block. I hope you have a terrific weekend! ~Ms. Petelle

Headlines:

Official Last Day of School

The official last day of school is June 2nd and it will be a SMART Day schedule.

Wear Orange

Wear Orange on Wednesday, April 29th, to Celebrate Limb Difference Awareness: Limb differences are one of the many natural ways bodies can form, and learning about them helps students understand and celebrate the diversity within our school community. Awareness fosters empathy, reduces misconceptions, and ensures that every child feels seen and included. We'll be highlighting orange - inspired by the bright color of the clownfish in Finding Nemo - as a symbol of celebrating unique strengths and the message that every fin, hand, and body belongs. Dress Code

As the weather becomes warmer, we are reminding students to make sure they are coming to school dressed appropriately. A great reminder for appropriate dress is "No Backs, Bellies, Bottoms."

Backs: As an example, shirts with sleeves cut off too far that overly expose the back or torso.

Bellies: As an example, shirts that do not cover the midriff of the torso.

Bottoms: As an example, shorts that are too short while standing or sitting that expose the bottom.

Thanks for your cooperation and support!

ATTENDANCE CORNER

School Attendance:

Attendance last week was among the highest we've seen all year—an impressive accomplishment that reflects our students' dedication and the strong support from our families. Being present each day truly makes a difference in learning, connection, and overall success.

Let's keep this positive momentum going! We encourage all students to continue showing up ready to learn, and we thank families for making attendance a priority. Together, we can finish the year strong.
