WHY GIVE?

Table Talk With the Chaplain: Join Rev. Mitchell on April 28

We made it—almost. Before the school year closes and summer takes over, I'd love to gather one last time for coffee, honest conversation, and a little breathing room.

- When: Tuesday, April 28, at 8:05 a.m.
- Where: Bride's Room on Piney Point Campus

This month's theme is Letting Go and Leaning In—a conversation about closing the year with gratitude and stepping into summer with intention. We'll take a moment to look back at what this year held—the surprises, the hard stretches, the quiet growth in our kids we almost missed. And we'll look ahead together at what our middle schoolers actually need from us over the summer, before they come back changed (again) in the fall.

This is our last Coffee & Conversations of the year, and I want to close it well—with you. Come as you are. Coffee will be ready, and so will the conversation.

Warm regards,

The Rev. Katie Mitchell+
Middle School Chaplain

Handbook Highlights: Respecting the Property of the School and Others
Each week, we'll shine a quick spotlight on a helpful tip from our School Handbook to help keep our community informed and aligned with shared expectations. These little reminders are just an easy way to support our students and families as we navigate the year together.

This week, we are featuring procedures for Respecting the Property of the School and Others.

Respecting the property of others is expected of all students at St. Francis. Violations of these expectations will not be tolerated and will result in disciplinary action. The following are expressly prohibited; however, this should in no way be deemed an exhaustive list:

- Stealing or vandalism of any form, including the unauthorized "borrowing" of another's belongings;
- Removing athletics equipment from the gym or athletics area without permission;
- Removing books from the library or classrooms without signing them out or receiving faculty permission to do so;

- Writing or carving on desks, walls, bulletin boards, or other property;
- Selling of any items for any reason (If student groups at St. Francis would like to sell items for charitable purposes, they must see the division office for permission);
- Littering or not picking up after oneself; and
- Food or drink outside specific areas.

In addition to respecting the property belonging to the school or to others on the campus, students must respect the property of faculty, parents/guardians, visitors, and neighboring homeowners.
