

Memorial

Students at Barker Junior High School conducted a memorial program on Jan. 7 for John Wuerzburger, a Barker student who was killed in a car-train accident December 20 in The Pines area. Dr. Dorothy Kennington organized the program.

Bob Rose, Student Council president, opened the program; Jerry Karstens, John's football coach, read the 23rd Psalm; Holly Becker gave a short obituary; Bob Van Scyoc read a poem, "There Is No Death;" Natalie McFeely read a poem, "Building for Eternity," by N.B. Sargent; Charles Young, wrestling coach, announced a memorial plaque will be presented in John's name each year by the wrestling team; a poem written by Georgeann and Christine Palmer was read by Georgeann, and Robert Dillon, principal, gave closing remarks.
